State Insurance Board asked to investigate Jackson Landing

A resolution asking the State Insurance Board to investigate employee insurance withholdings at the now idle Jackson Landing Shipyard passed unanimously Monday before Hancock ** supervisors.

The request for an investigation by the State Insurance Board was in response to complaints by several former employees of the shipyard that insurance coverage was terminated by the company May 1 although employee deductions continued until the company ceased operation Aug. 15.

Harold Necaise told the board that claims made to Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, headquartered in Dallas, Texas, were returned disallowed with a notation that premiums were in default.

Necaise said Jackson Landing never notified its employees it had terminated the insurance for its employees and in fact continued to make payroll deductions for the employees.

Necaise said that a claim for $800 which was first paid by the insurance company was later reneged. In other business the board:

-entered into contract renewal with Gulf Regional Planning Commission for another year. GRPC director Ned Boudreaux told board members that the county would have a full time planner working in the county in the coming year. The contract extends until April 30, 1976.

-adopted a resolution establishing the Kiln separate Fire District. Attorney Bill Frisbie, representing the Kiln Volunteer Fire Department said the community of Fenton, which was not included in the original district petition, could be added later by petition. A public hearing on the motion was set for 10 a.m. Oct. 6, eaccepted a recommendation by Port. and Harbor director Wilson Webre to accept the bid of Beta Enterprises for $9,980 for drainage work to the Azoline Thian property configuous to Port Bienville Industrial Park.

-Okayed suggestion by Circuit Court Clerk Henry Otis to have Harrison County Circuit Court Clerk Webb Lee attend Sept. 22 board meeting to discuss. aspects of mechanized voting

Ladner charges board with playing politics

Legality of loan questioned

The legality of a $20,000 interfund loan to Beat One supervisor Jerry Ladner was challenged by Hancock board attorney Sam Favre Monday and just as vigorously defended by Ladner after the loan was questioned by democratic primary loser Harlan

Appearing before the board as "the supervisor representing district six" Dean attacked the legality of Ladner's payroll for the three months preceding the election as well as charging discrimination in blacktop work in Ladner's beat.

The interfund loan in question was approved by the complete board last week to cover a $16,000 deficiency in Ladner's road and bridge fund. The board approved a $10,000 transfer of funds from the county's Sanitary Land Fill Fund and the Health and Sick Care Fund with the provision that Ladner do right now, Kellar threw back. repay the two funds before the end of December Monday, board attorney Sam Favre angrily stated he was "not consulted and in no way approved the legality of

.The matter surfaced after defeated beat one candidate Harlan Dean charged Ladner with illegal overspending in his beat and adding to his payroll against state statute during the last three months prior to the election. Citing two sections of the state code.

Favre said state law prohibits any outgoing member from spending any more than 25 percent of his budget during the last four months of his term. "This transfer to cover deficit financing was wrong - illegal," Favre

Chancery Clerk John Rutherford reported beat one had a projected income of $36,258 for the remaining four months of the year. However, with Ladner obligated to repay $20,000 before the end of December, his payroll and operating budget is only $16,000.

Ladner, who was visibly irritated by the dicsussion, charged Favre and board chairman Alton Kellar with trying to shut down beat one.

"If you all are trying to shut down beat one, you can go ahead," said Ladner,

In an effort to cover its rear, beat five supervisor made a motion to halt any further spending in beat one "until this money to the interfund loan is repaid," but the motion died for lack of a second. Travirca countered Ladner's charge that his beat was badly in debt when he took over the office four years ago.

"When we both took office in 1972." Travirca said, "he (Ladner) was $36,000 in the hole and I was $22,000 in the hole. We both started out in the Travirca added his beat was in the black now, however, as were all the other beats except Ladner's.

The question of any legal action against Ladner and the rest of the board rests now with state auditor Hamp King, according to board attorney Favre. 1-

"The warrants have already been issued, it wouldn't do any good to rescind the loan now," Favre said. "That's like closing the gate after the horse got out."

In other business Monday the board trimmed a total of one mill from three county levies in order to add one mill for payment of GEC interest.

The subtraction and addition of the one mill leaves the total millage for fiscal 1976 the same as 1975 or 70.5 mills. Beat five will pay one extra mill to retire a road and bridge fund bon

Funds which were reduced include advertising resources from .5 mill to .25 mill, support of poor from 1.75 mills to 1.5 mills and county loan warrant from 2 mills to 1.5 mills.

International temporarily halts ship sinking

Foreman Ernest Mitchell said further sinkings until further and the con Wednesday that International Demolition & Salvage Company would follow a wait-and-see plan until controversy over sinking of further salvaged Liberty ships was resolved. The Hancock County firm which engaged in contracts with the Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission to sink five WWII Liberty ship hulls for use as artificial fishing reefs in the Gulf of Mexico met opposition Monday from the Army Corps of Engineers who ordered a temporary halt to sinking of further ships pending a meeting with officials of the corps and the Mississippi Gulf Fishing Banks Committee. Commission Executive Director Charles Lyles said the corps and the commission have received a number of complaints about the first vessel sunk being in the wrong location and of fishing boats hanging their trawls on it.

The first vessel sunk by International last June was supposed to have been scuttled five and one-half miles due south of Dog Keyes Pass, a site selected by the commission and the Mississippi Gulf Fishing Banks.

According to the Corps the hull is actually about one and a quarter miles north-northeast of the intended

Mitchell said Wednesday he had received no official notification from either the Corps or the commission but that the company would hold up any developments surfaced.

· Mitchell said International had a second vessel ready for sinking, and would have already sunk that vessel but for the fact that Bill Demoran with Gulf Coast Research Lab who is coordinating the sinkings, was on vacation.

If prevented from any further sinkings, Mitchell said the company would simply scrap the entire vessel, which is currently only being salvaged for ferrous metals down to an 11-foot water line.

didn't have to sink these vessels," he

Mitchell said the company which bears all costs involved in the sinkings would have more capital to invest in its Port Bienville operation if deterred from further sinkings.

"However", he added, "we would like to complete our arrangement with Mr. Demoran to sink these vessels and create fishing reefs for the sport

GI Bill overpayments must be repaid

Overpayments that may have resulted from providing assistance to veterans and servicemen enrolled in GI Bill training must be recovered, Merlyn J. Cook, Assistant Jackson VA Center Director for Regional Office, said

Every effort is made to avoid overpayments, Cook-explained; but this requires a coordinated effort on the part of the VA, the veteran and the training institution. Overpayments most frequently occur when the VA is not informed promptly of a change in the veteran's training status.

Generally, the resulting indebtedness to the U.S. Government is recovered through reduction of future VA monthly assistance checks until the over-

payment is satisfied. To minimize the inconvenience and additional paperwork caused by overpayments, Cook urged veterans to notify the VA immediately of any changes in training. This notification? has been simplified at some 3,000 schools where VA's "vet reps" provide on-campus service.

Cook also stressed the importance of GI Bill students keeping the VA informed of changes in dependency status and addresses. This will help to insure the veteran is receiving the proper amount and that delivery of the monthly assistance check is not in-

Post office encourages complaints

A nationwide Consumer Service Program designed to improve and broaden the equality of mail service was announced by postmasters Frank Taconi and Walter Turcotte.

Beginning Monday, the U.S. Postal Service will introduce a program at the Bay St. Louis and Waveland offices and other offices across the nation to encourage mail users to register problems they pay have with their mail service.

At the core of the program is a consurper service card, through which problems are identified and which postal managers attempt to resolve. "Good service is a far broader concept than just fast mail handling.

said Postmaster General-Benjamin F. Bailar. "It is built on employee courtesy, our responsiveness to customers needs, and understanding are what good postal service is all Postmasters Taconi and Turcotta urged customers to bring their inquiries and complaints to the altention of the postal managers. If the people don't feel their problems have sheen properly handled; the postmaster said they should see him personally.

To make it ensier for the customer to make a suggestion or complaint about service card will be available for letter carriers at the post office.

According to postmasters Taconi and Turcotte, the card is two pegal cards with carbon paper between them. 'One copy goes to me or a station supe tendest so work can begin on t problem. The other goes to the posts service headquarters in Washingles in cataloguing and analysis." The card are appeared to help spot proble areas and trends and take correcti

Bay High Tigers lose opener in the rain, 20-14

By DAVID PIERSON

Echo Sports Editor The Stone County Tomcats capitalized on Bay High's only fumble of the night to upend the Tigers 20-14 in Gulf Coast Conference action at Tiger

The Tigers battled evenly with the defending conference champions but lost out in their upset bid when they fumbled a punt at their own 15-yard line in the third quarter.

The Tomcats tested the Tigers' line most of the first quarter with running plays, but their early success came on short passes down the sidelines. On their first possession, after two running plays of no consequence, Tomcat quarterback Tommy Parker hit George Redeemer with a short pass down the left sideline. Redeemer outran the Tiger defenders for an apparent touchdown, but the play was called back to the Tiger 38-yard-line where Redeemer stepped out of

In the second quarter; the Stone punter, Alton Mitchell, dropped the center snap, and the Tigers took possession on the Tomcat 35. On the nextplay, Tiger quarterback Bill Ginn rolled right and hit David Turcotte at the goal line for six points. The PAT attempt, however, was no good, and the QUESTION: Who holds the major league record for hitting home runs in consecutive games? I thought it was Rudy York, but a magazine quiz says Dale Long.

ANSWER: Dale Long holds the record for hitting homers in eight consecutive games for the Pittsburgh Pirates, in May, 1956. Rudy York, who played first and did some catching for the Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox, set the record for most home runs in one month. When he clouted 18 for the Tigers back in August, 1937. The Bengals had Hank Greenberg then, too, for a big 1-2 punch.

QUESTION: South paws have always been among the great baseball pitchers. How come there aren't more great lefthanded passers in football? ANSWER: One answer is that the rotation of the ball thrown by a southpaw is the reverse of what receivers are used to making the ball harder to catch. But that's something receivers can adjust to, as Kenny Stabler and his receivers have proved at Oakland. However, other southpaw passers have been Bobby Douglas of the Chicago Bears and Jimmy Del Gaizo, who has bounced around. The best of them all may have been the San Francisco 49er' Frankie Albert.

Joe Leddy informs us that he has been catching flounders regularly off the seawall at Bayou Cadet. He uses dead shrimp and fishes on the bottom. Got a couple nice ones last Friday. Joe is also a perch fisherman supreme.

Bill Stewart doesn't claim to be a real fisherman, but when it comes to bar bequeing perch he is a past master. Will get us some soon, Bill.

For you fly fishermen and casters, Salt Bayou over in Louisiana near Slidell is an ideal place for this kind of fishing. You can launch your boat at Sam's Place just across the bridge anytime. Itis a donvenient place to put over. The bass are not too big, but plentiful.

Saw John Scafide and Sam Farve pulling them in Sunday at this place.

Alden and I took young Mike Mauffray, Alden's grandson, with us Sunday. We caught 25 bass after the squall. Mike is a promising young fisherman. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mauffray of Slidell, La.

Sam's Place is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Caruthers at Salt Bayou, Slidell, La. They have live bait and shrimp for those who don't use artificial baits. Those who don't use a boat can fish from the bridge and along the bayou. A wonderful spot tospend the day, Arthur Miller, one of our best fly fishermen also fishes at Salt Bayou. Arthur gets his share of bass and perch.

Received an invitation from Hank Irvin, skipper of the Sea Exploren Ship 770 to go on a fishing trip to Grand Isle, I am a member of the ship's committee in New Orleans. Ship 770 was awarded the National Standard Flag this year with the highest overallscore of any ship in the New Orleans area of the Boy Scouts of America.

Hank plans to bring the ship to Bayou Cadet this summer with its committeemen and

Potatoes: The Old Stand-By

Potatoes are available in three basic varities; new potatoes for boiling, general purpose potatoes, and baking potatoes. They may be long, round, or somewhere in between and may be a "white", "red", or "Russet" color classification. To obtain quality potatoes, which will last longest at home, look for smooth, firm, well-shapedvarieties with few or no eyes. Avoid potatoes with aprouts or green apota. Green spots are caused by exposure to natural or artificial light and give the vegetable a bitter flavor.

Quality doesn't end in the selection. Potatoes bruise easily, so handle them. carefully at home. Proper storage is the key to keeping general purpose and purchase and 'new' potatoes for several weeks. Since dampness increases the rate of decay, store them unwashed in a cool dark well-ventilated area. News for the diet-conscious! One medium-sized potato contains less than 100 calories.

Miss Robinson, Michael Ladner exchange vows

Miss Kathleen Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Robinson of Waveland, Miss., and Michael Lawrence Ladner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ladner, Bay St. Louis, were married Saturday, September 6, at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic carech.

Very Rev. Gregory Johnson, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and pale pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. John McKenna, organist, provided a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of silk organza fashioned with a high neckline and bishop sleeves. Narrow bands of lace and dainty tucks enhanced the lifted bodice and corresponding lace encircled the A-line skirt that swept to a chapel length train. Her elbow length veil of illusion was edged with matching lace and she carried a bouquet of miniature white carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Judith Fahey, Waveland, attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Janet Ladner and Mrs. Beverly McGill, sisters of the groom, Bay St. Louis, and Miss Cynthia Fahey, niece of the bride, Waveland.

They wore pale pink A-line dresses trimmed with imported lace and head-pieces fashioned of pink bows and nylon net. They carried bouquets of miniature pink carnations.

Monica Bourgeois, flower girl, was dressed as a miniature bride and carried a white basket of miniature pink carnations.

Hollis Ladner, Ansley, Miss., was his brother's best man. Luther Ladner, Bay St. Louis, and Sam Ladner, Lakeshore, cousins of the groom, and Merlin Necaise Jr., cousin of the bride, Waveland, were groomsmen. Merlin J. Necaise, cousin of the bride, and Jerry Ladner, cousin of the groom, Waveland, served as ushers.

A reception was held at the American Legion home, Bay St. Louis, where the mother of the bride received guests wearing a floor length gown of chiffon in coordinated shades of pink and a white and pink orchid corsage.

The mother of the groom chose a pale green knit dress with matching jacket and a white orchid corsage.

For her traveling outfit, the bride wore a baby blue pantsuit with multi-colored blue quiana blouse and white blazer. Upon their return from a wedding trip to Tennessee, the couple will make their home in Waveland.

Out of town guests were Mrs. A. Faust, maternal grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Ina Smith, paternal grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Faust, Miss Linda Faust, Miss Carol Faust, Mrs. G. Schoenberger, Miss Terry Karcher, Mr. and Mrs. G. Muellen and daughter Jennifer; Mrs. L. Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fahey, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boudreaux and sons, all of New Orleans.

Our customers are asking -

Have electric rates increased since last summer... How much has the increased cost of tuel added to electric service bills this summer?

Base rates have not changed since April 1, 1974. The cost of electric service has increased, however, as the price per kilowatt-hour is adjusted each month to reflect changes in the cost of fuel actually burned by our company to produce electricity. Both fuel costs and kilowatt-hour usage are higher this summer than last summer.

Here are two examples comparing actual costs to residential customers of Mississippi.

Miss Hospitality, Karen Alexander begins busy post pageant life

"It hasn't really dawned on Miss Hospitality.

The 20-year-old beauty from Union was chosen from 81 contestants at the 26th annual A&I Board-sponsored Miss trip was to Los Angeles, Aug. Hospitality contest held this summer in Biloxi. "Before they called out who won, I kept thinking about in the Mississippi section of being a good loser. It took me the VFW parade and served as a while to realize that the name they called was mine," Karen said. "After the pageant, Karen Earl Laird Day festivities in cheerleader and received the drove home to be alone with her hometown of Union and her family. Just outside will participate in the up-Decatur, a town nine miles coming Mississippi Industrial rituals chairman for Delta south of Union, she was met by Showcase '75 on Sept. 26-28 at Gamma Sorority and an ofa police escort.

"I don't usually cry when I get Mississippi's Ambassadress excited, but when we drove of Goodwill. up, and all those people were in the front yard, I couldn't haired daughter of Dr. J.G.

Since Karen began her reign Sadler Alexander is a junior at me yet," said Karen she has already traveled the University of Mississippi Alexander after her recent almost 4,000 of the 60,000 miles where she is majoring in selection as Mississipples new she is expected to travel in the sociology and social work, A upcoming year.

Accompanied by her studied plane for nine years) chaperone, Mrs. Frances Karen was in the band for four Kirby, Karen's first official years and plays the flute and 17-20, for the National Veterans of Foreign Wars Convention. She participated hostess at several convention functions.

She recently took part in Dr. School Students, head the Trade Mart in Jackson. ficer of the Social Work

She had another surprise Her busy schedule will take Association. She spends what waiting for her at home. About her to numerous conventions, little spare time she has with 150 friends and relatives had parades and travel shows her music and with her dog, prepared a reception for her, during her year as Snoopy,
